

Wonderful teaching positions are available at PAL!

Wonderful teaching positions are available at PAL immediately.

Our homely school has a very relaxed family atmosphere and we will celebrate our 12th anniversary this year. Many students have been attending for years and are very friendly.

Positions include full-time and part-time in teaching in a International Preschool setting, so applicants must love teaching baby to kindergarten children.

Working an average of about 7 hours per day. It is negotiable.

These positions are ideal for teachers who love children and has good communication skills, are self-motivated, responsible and creative and can plan interesting activities by themselves.

All positions require you to be currently living in Japan and to possess the appropriate full-time/part-time work visa with at least 12 months remaining on it.

Looking for new teacher wives of foreign nationals looked upon favorably!
